02 Operating Environment

Macro-economic

Financial Sector Overview

10 The Rwandan Economy remains resilient

Stable and reaffirmed economic outlook, supporting industry's growth

Real GDP

Rwanda's economy grew by ↑7.8% in 2025 Q1, driven by strong performance across all sectors.

- Services led growth at 9%, supported by retail, ICT, and hospitality. Industry expanded 7%, with double-digit gains in construction and mining. The agriculture sector picked momentum 8% on account of increased food crops production and export.

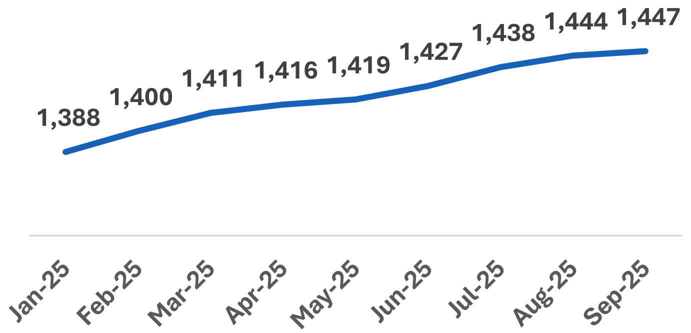
Urban CPI (Annual Change)

Consumer Price Index(CPI) increased by 7.3% YoY by Sep-25 albeit lower to the average inflation rate of the year.

2025 Outlook

- Headline inflation projected at 6.5% due to easing food inflation as domestic agriculture returns to normal levels
- Core inflation expected to increase overall, driven by import costs, impact of geopolitical tensions and adverse weather conditions.

Currency performance (USD/RWF)



- The Rwandan Franc depreciated by 4.2% YTD against the USD, moving from 1,388 in Jan-25 to 1,447 in Sep-25, showing a more moderate pace compared to the 9.4% depreciation in 2024 and 18.1% in 2023. This reflects improved external inflows and a relatively stable macro backdrop, though FX pressures remain linked to a high import bill.

11 Monetary Policy statement

Rwanda's Merchandise Trade deficit widened +3.6% by H1-2025

Merchandise Exports	+6.2% H1-2025	-0.9% H1-2024
Merchandise Imports	+4.5% H1-2025	+5.7% H1-2024

The widening trade deficit continued to exert pressure on the Rwandan Franc (Frw), which depreciated by around 2.96% against the US dollar as of end June 2025.

However, other private and public foreign exchange inflows supported gross official reserves, maintaining a coverage of 4.7 months as of end March 2025, well above the 4 months benchmark.

Headline Inflation increased to

6.7% H1-2025 From 4.6% H1-2024

In Q2 2025, Inflation slightly increased to 7.3%, within target range of 2% to 8%.

2025 headline inflation projected at ~6.5%; 2026 at ~3.9%..

Drivers of the Q3 uptick in inflation

- Higher core food prices in line with international food price trends.
- Energy inflation fell, reflecting declines in both solid and liquid fuel inflation.

CBR Rate 6.5% H1-2025 From CBR Rate 7.0% H1-2024

The interbank rate has decreased

6.54% H1 2025 From 8.21% H1 2024

Lending rate decreased to

15.93% H1 2025 From 16.30% H1 2024

BK Capital

20 BK Capital – 9M 2025 Snapshot

Strong AuM Growth; Revenue Impact from Project Delays and Higher Operating Costs

- AuM grew sharply by ↑93% YTD to RWF 141Bn (Dec-24: 73.4Bn), driven by robust new client onboarding, continued pension inflows, and strong performance across flagship funds such as Aguka. Growth was broad-based, with Managed Accounts attracting larger institutional mandates, underscoring rising investor confidence.

- Fund Management increased sharply y-o-y, in line with the significant growth in AuM and improved portfolio yields.
- Corporate Advisory revenue declined to RWF 359Mn, mainly due to project delays and longer deal completion cycles, despite a healthy advisory pipeline.
- Brokerage income softened to RWF 245Mn, reflecting subdued equity market activity and lower trading volumes.

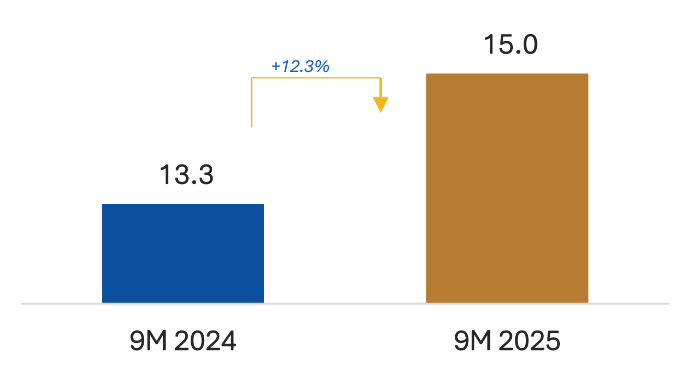
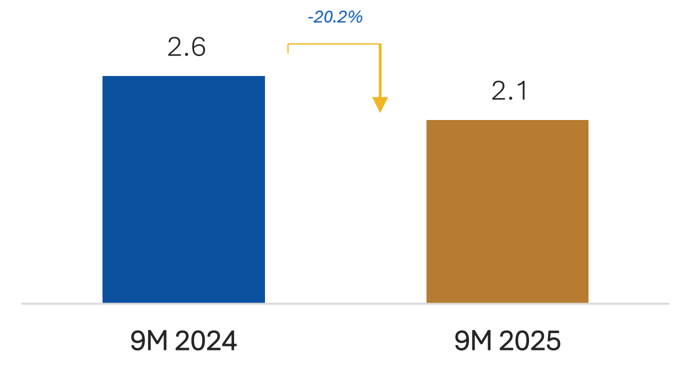
Business Volume Momentum but Core Profitability Facing Headwinds

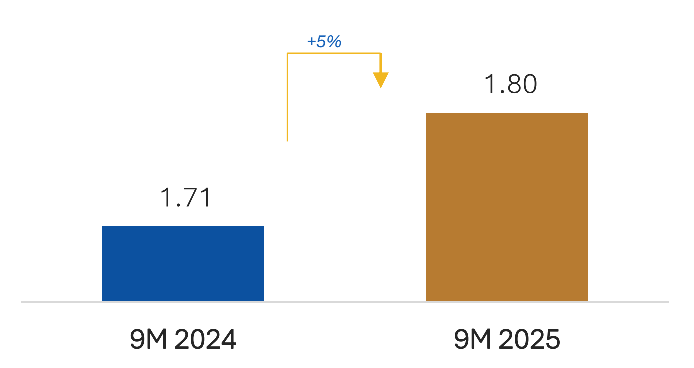
Gross Premiums, RWF Bn



Underwriting Profit, RWF Bn



Investment Income, RWF Bn



Net profit, RWF Bn

- ✓ Gross written premiums grew by ↑12.3% YoY, reflecting sustained business momentum, new client acquisition, and strong renewal performance.
- ✓ Underwriting profit declined by ↓20.2%, driven by higher claims in select segments, which temporarily elevated the loss ratio.
- ✓ Investment Income increased by ↑5% YoY to RWF 1.80Bn, supported by stable yields and a diversified investment portfolio.
- ✓ Net profit declined to RWF 2.9Bn, reflecting underwriting pressures. Profitability is expected to improve as claims experience normalizes over the next periods.

23 BK insurance: Key Prudential Ratios

Prudential Ratios Remain Well-managed Amid Moderate Balance Sheet Growth

- ✓ Expense Ratio improved to 34% (Dec: 35%), reflecting disciplined cost control and efficiency gains.
- ✓ ROE and ROA remain robust at 22% and 15%, respectively, underscoring strong profitability and effective capital utilization despite underwriting pressures.
- ✓ RBC remains above the >130% benchmark at 138%, underscoring adequate capitalization relative to risk exposures. The ratio compares capital available against the capital required

BK TecHouse

25 BK TecHouse: Key Financial Highlights – 9M 2025 Snapshot

Strong revenue and margin growth; net performance impacted by non-recurring income and cost pressures

- ✓ Sales (Gross Revenue) momentum remained strong, up by +31% YoY driven by strong momentum in SoD (Software-on-Demand) and SaaS revenues. Growth would have been higher, but performance was weighed down by delayed contract closures and postponed commitments from key institutional clients.
- ✓ Gross profit rose by 23%YoY supported by higher sales. Gross margin, however, softened due to increased hosting charges and a shift toward SoD projects, which carry lower margins. Additional cost of sales pressure came from the reversal of previously waived hosting fees and higher platform session charges.
- ✓ Net Performance remained under pressure, with the bottom-line adversely widening to RWF 543Mn, mainly reflecting the absence of prior-year grant income and higher operating expenses associated with ongoing growth initiatives and long-cycle project implementations.
