Trading Environment

Despite having to contend with the Covid pandemic and disruption of business as a result of the Ukraine war, challenges in the forex market, fuel and commodity price increases and the disruptions in global supply chains, NBV was able to deliver positive results.

The Directors do not recommend any Dividend for the year ended 31st March 2022

Business Overview

Trading Division

In the period under review, NBV was able to generate Kes 190 million in turnover against Kes 45 million in the previous year. The change is because NBV trading in the previous financial year was done for only 4 months.

In the first quarter of 2022/23 financial year, the trading division has generated Kes 47 million.

Vehicle Servicing Division

Delta Automobile managed to generate Kes 595 million of turnover in the period under review. The business generated Kes 116 million in revenues in the first quarter of the 2022/23 financial year.

Aviation Division

The business managed to generate a turnover of Kes 30 million over the 2021/22 financial year. The business has generated over Kes 6 million in the first quarter of 2022/23 financial year.

Cement Division

Fund raising efforts are continuing and when they bear fruit, we will make the appropriate announcements in due time.

NOTE:

All subsidiaries are in the process of changing their year-end to 31st March and subsequently for the year ended 31st March 2023, consolidated financial statements will be prepared.

Outlook

We believe that 2022/23 financial year will be a better year in terms of performance since we expect a better operating environment over this period and also due to various initiatives that are being pursued and implemented.
