1. Changes in Presentation of Performance

a. Change in the Titles of the Financial Statements

1. Changes in Presentation of Performance

b. Incorporation of a Statement of Comprehensive Income

- o The Statement of Comprehensive Income discloses non-owner changes in equity in addition to the profit for the period. These non owner changes in equity are those items previously shown under the Statement of Changes in Equity i.e. asset revaluation surplus/deficit, fair value movements in available for sale assets as well as unrealized translation gains/losses.
- o This amendment is particularly important to Centum, as analysis of our performance is better done through review of our total return, which includes both realised and unrealised value movements in our equity portfolio.

2. H1 Focus

Our focus remains:

- To deliver market beating returns
- Increase assets under management and enhance diversification
- Cost control

3. Performance Highlights for H1

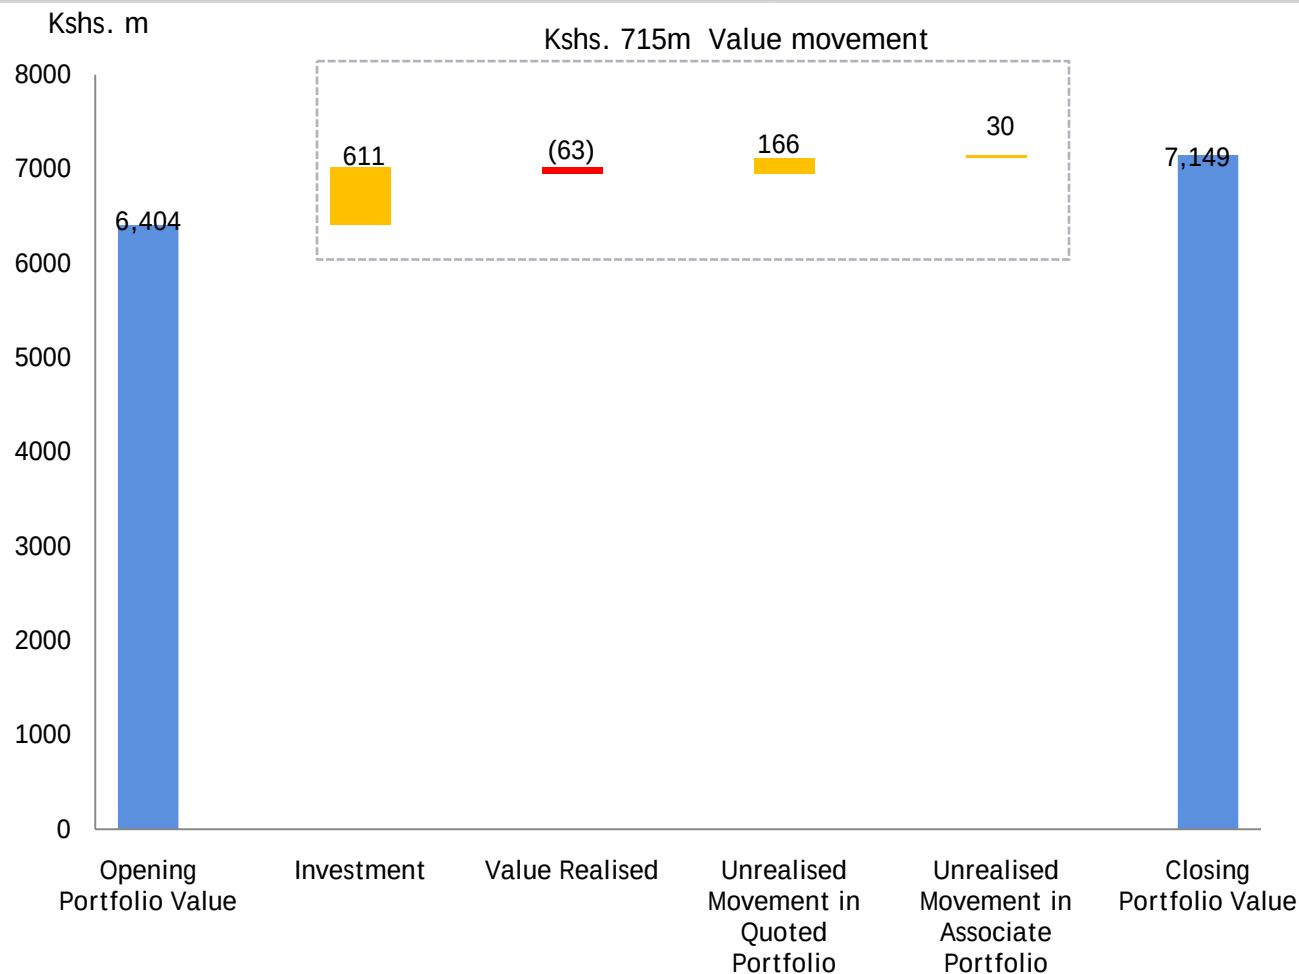

429% increase in total comprehensive income
(a tangible increase in shareholder wealth)

5% increase in asset base during the period

increased leverage
to take advantage of investment opportunities operating costs at 1.3% of portfolio value & within target

7. Outlook

- Our focus remains on our key objectives of scaling up the business and delivery of market beating returns.
- We are confident in the strength of our portfolio to deliver market beating returns to our shareholder, and continue to demonstrate capacity to generate superior returns through economic cycles and periods of market volatility.
- We are also considering alternative sources for funding to supplement internally generated funds as is requisite to spur growth of our business.
- We continue to seek attractive opportunities to add onto the portfolio and work with our partners in portfolio companies to develop them into extraordinary enterprises.
