

H1 2024 Investor Presentation

Driving Socio-Economic Relevance

GDP Growth (%)

- ✓ The region is on course for +5.0% growth in 2024 driven by agriculture and service sectors.
- ✓ Thematically, robust public spending, resilient consumer demand, increased FDIs, institutional reforms supporting growth.
- ✓ Pace of expansion in Kenya has softened as public spending slows but remains decent.

Headline Inflation (%)

- ✓ Inflation has slowed on improved food output, lower energy prices and tight credit conditions.
- ✓ Softer inflation setting conditions for central banks to begin unwinding rate hikes, although the pace will diverge.
- ✓ While Kenya, Uganda may move sooner, Tanzania may lag given the unparalleled 17% credit growth against an average 6.0% growth in Kenya & Uganda

NB: Burundi inflation - 26% (Jul-23), 18.7% (Jun-24).

Source: Respective country Bureaus of statistics, central banks

91-Day T-bill yield (%)

- ✓ Interest rates backed inflation trends across our presence markets.
- ✓ After the FX volatility in 2023, central banks will take queue from the US Fed.
- ✓ Fiscal dominance especially in Kenya to keep interest rates elevated for longer
- ✓ Prolonged pressure on cost of funds for banks.

Year-on-year Currency performance Vs US$ (Jul-24)

- ✓ Stronger KES backed by an improved current account (4.0% of GDP - 2024) – stronger balance of payment, DFI flows, remittances
- ✓ Uganda stable on balanced flows – FDIs, tourism, portfolio inflows
- ✓ Weakening TZS reflects higher current account deficit, reduced FX reserves, unfavourable interest differentials
- ✓ Burundi – Managed float

Source: Respective central banks

Kenya

- ✓ Sustained economic resilience driven by agriculture, but climate risks are emerging
- ✓ CBK to cut interest rates further but yields to remain higher for longer.
- ✓ IMF review in September critical for funding and investor signaling.
- ✓ Liquidity conditions to remain tight on prolonged payment cycle by government
- ✓ Credit markets to remain tight - increased restructuring, preference for short term credit, offshore funding
- ✓ Effective demand for credit to remain thin as investors shelve capex
- ✓ Consumer and SME books to be most affected by prevailing market conditions

Tanzania

- ✓ Relatively strong real GDP growth underpinned by decent public spending, low inflation, continued reforms under the IMF programme
- ✓ Agriculture, mining and tourism are key growth sectors
- ✓ Increased elections related spending threatens higher inflationary pressure.
- ✓ BoT to keep interest rates high as a precaution to the inflation threats but credit markets to remain robust.
- ✓ FX pressures to persist as BoT limits interventions in the market, allowing for effective price discovery.
- ✓ Reserves have declined to $5.3Bn covering 4.4 months of imports.

Uganda

- ✓ GDP growth supported by increased household spending, FDIs to the energy sector, public investment and rising net exports.
- ✓ Low and stable Inflation backed by higher food output, reduced exchange rate volatility & tight credit markets
- ✓ Higher fiscal deficit and increased drawdown on FX reserves to keep interest rates elevated, with crowding out risks to the private sector.
- ✓ Increased number of Fintechs and tech-enabled financial services to open-up opportunities for partnerships.

Total Capital/Total Risk Weighted Assets	17.3%	16.3%	16.1%	(10)bps

Performance Highlights

▪ Asset growth:

Muted growth in assets

- Reduced lending due to foreign exchange revaluation and tame effective demand for credit.
- Deposits grew by 3.3% reflecting FX revaluation impact on USD denominated deposits and use of alternative borrowing to fund assets in lieu of costly term deposits.
- CASA deposit ratio improved from 49% in H1 2023 to 54% in H1 2024 from all customer segments.

▪ Non-Performing Loans

Deteriorated by 8% Y/Y, but has stabilised since December 2023

- Downgrade of a few large ticket exposures to non-performing status in H2, 2023.
- Heightened credit risk environment exacerbated by tight liquidity in businesses and elevated domestic and global interest rates.

▪ Liquidity & Capital

- The Group's liquidity and capital adequacy ratios are well above the regulatory threshold backed by strong deposit growth.

Customer deposits (KShs Bn)

- ✓ Resilient deposits buoyed by growth in customer base
- ✓ Growth impaired by revaluation impact on FCY denominated deposits

- Resilience in the deposit base reflects gains from customer growth across the group.
- Subsidiaries contribution to deposits increased from 36% to 40%.

Total assets (KShs Bn)

- ✓ Growth affected by;
 1. FX revaluation impact on FCY loans and deposits
 2. Lower effective demand for loans due to elevated credit risks
 3. Moderate deposit growth (net of FX revaluation adjustment)

Net Loans & Advances (KShs Bn)

- ✓ FX revaluation impact on FCY denominated loans
- ✓ Conservative lending amidst increased credit risks

Investment in government securities (Kshs Bn)

- ✓ Constrained funding due to tight market liquidity

- Growth of DTB in markets outside Kenya has resulted in strength and diversity across important metrics.

Performance Highlights

- Operating profit grew by 8.2% (KShs 0.8 billion) driven by:
 - Improved net interest income on the back of better margins (higher yield on loans and use of low-cost CASA deposits).
 - Growth in non funded income attributed to an expanding customer base and increased transaction volumes.
- Growth in operating expenses reflects investment in digital platform, expanded branch footprint and talent to support the delivery of the business growth strategy.
- Cost of risk/Loan loss provision:
 - Slight increase in cost of risk YOY but improved position compared to December 2023.
 - The NPL ratio is expected to improve in 2025 underpinned by recoveries of existing impaired assets.

Subsidiary Contribution to Group PBT

Subsidiary contribution to PBT (KShs Bn)

- Subsidiary contribution to PBT improved to 35% in H1 2024 from 23% in H1 2023 reflecting enhanced performance by the Tanzania franchise due to;
 - ✓ Improved NII underpinned by improved yields.
 - ✓ Increased fee income supported by higher FX dealing profit.
- The improved performance reflects increased diversity and our growing strength in markets outside Kenya.

Improved Margins driven by Higher Yields & Cost of Funds Management

Yield on Loans

- ❑ Improved yield on loans mirrors adjustments in lending rates in line with the Central Bank's monetary policy stance
- ❑ Improved currency mix on the loan portfolio in favour of LCY lending.

Cost of Deposits

- ❑ Increase in cost of deposits reflects the surge in yields on G-secs and heightened competition for funds among banks
- ❑ Gains from improved CASA ratio of 54% from 49%

Improved Earnings Per Share & Returns to Shareholders
