COMMENTS ON THE RESULTS

We completed implementation of key turn around programs to facilitate the Company's recovery and the Company has now fully aligned its business model to its key revenue and margin drivers in order to create a more sustainable business. The resultant prioritization and deepened investment in the Company's growth drivers reduced and eliminated the drag of non-viable business lines and the resultant 4% margin improvement compared to the prior period affirms the decisions made in that regard.

The 29.7% decline in revenues was as a result of an anticipated transitory issue arising from a product mix review which will reverse itself in future periods and, the disruption of our supply chain in Q2 as our source markets dealt with the COVID-19 pandemic.

We continue to maintain a clear focus on cost minimization and the Company shed KES.37M in overhead costs by reviewing its cost structure, a reduction of 48% from prior year.

The turnaround programs have yielded positive outcomes and although the Company recorded a loss before tax of KES.15M this was 63% lower than last year's loss of KES 39M.

DIVIDEND

The Company does not recommend the payment of an interim dividend.

FUTURE OUTLOOK

The Directors anticipate that the economic recession arising out of the impact of COVID-19 will have a significant impact to our business although this impact cannot be fully quantified at this time. The Directors have reviewed the risks associated with the Pandemic and have adopted various measures to mitigate its impact to the business. We also continue to focus on achieving profitable growth to facilitate the Company's recovery and we will remain focused on exploiting growth opportunities in fulfilment of our Strategic Plan, 2022. In March 2020, we commenced distribution of NIA® sanitary towels, a product that aligns itself to our brand promise of providing our consumers with quality products affordably. This product will complement our household category and we look forward to its contribution to the growth of our business.
