TAKING STOCK OF OUR STRATEGY

iMara 2.0

A recap of our iMara 2.0 Strategy (2021 – 2023)

- I&M has been on a transformation journey since the beginning of 2016.
- iMara 2.0 set the foundation towards being a diversified banking group.

Our successes from iMara 2.0 (2021 – 2023)

How we have achieved our success

Our customer centric approach to the business has been the key anchor to driving success

Key focus areas:

1. Geographic Expansion
2. Segment Expansion
3. Growing a full digital distribution capability (innovation, automation and digitization)
4. Investment in People
5. Building Brand Relevance

1. Geographical diversification

2021 marked the year when the Group solidified its presence in East Africa through the acquisition of Orient Bank Uganda (rebranded as I&M Bank Uganda).

PBT Contribution by Regional Subsidiaries

We continue to see our diversification strategy yielding fruit as we consolidate our businesses:

- US$3.8Mn generated through Cross border business development initiative.
- Total subsidiaries PBT contribution at 24% from 5% in 2020

* 2020 was an exceptional year as our JV in Mauritius (Bank One) had posted a loss before tax, impacted by specific corporates; Pre-2020, subsidiaries contributed 13% to Profit before Tax

2.1 Segment Expansion

Our strategy has enabled us to create relevant propositions with a focus on growing our customer numbers and improving the deposit mix

2.2 Segment Expansion – Corporate & Institutional Banking

Defending our Corporate Strength

- ❑ Corporate and Institutional Business (CIB) grew by 3 Year CAGR of 34%;
- ❑ CIB segment has grown following our entry into new segments such as Oil& Gas, Public sector ;
- ❑ Collaboration with Bank One in participating in several syndication deals

2.3 Segment Expansion – Personal & Business Banking

Building our Personal and Business Banking Space

- ❑ Focused approach to growing the Personal and Business Banking (PBB) business through attractive value propositions tailored towards our retail customers;
- ❑ PBB segment grew by 3 Year CAGR of 29%;
- ❑ PBB segment has grown following our entry into new segments such as unsecured digital lending, supply chain and stock financing;

3. Growing full digital distribution capability

~ 81% of I&M Group’s transactions were executed digitally in 2023, with a transaction value of ~ KES 1.2 trillion

5. Building Brand Relevance

- I&M Bank celebrates 50 years this year in May. A bank with strong Kenyan roots, built on diversity and inclusion with presence in the Eastern Africa region.
- An authentic regional bank that positively impacts our communities and businesses.
- A Bank that develops strong product propositions and marketing campaigns that solve problems for Kenyan customers.
